

BETH FROM LEGAL

6.

REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL
Divvy'ing up floor space evenly among hundreds of different departments is a thankless job.
Never too much, but never too little. I swear - if I have to hear from Beth from legal one more time about their desk allotment....

In walks BETH FROM LEGAL

BETH FROM LEGAL
Knock knock. Beth from legal here.
Hey just flagging you that the folks in accounting have 17 desks and we only have 15. Needless to say we are not happy about this.

REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL
(to PARTNER)
See what I mean. Stay far away from this.

BETH FROM LEGAL
And I speak for the entire legal department when I say we could really all use some more lumbar support in our chairs. I got three people out this week with muscle spasms and we cannot afford to lose another. The tech team chairs have tons of lumbar support. Why can't we? Ok thanks bye now!

She leaves.

PARTNER
Listen - you're in trouble and I think I have your ticket out. Just hear me out -

The phone rings. It's the CEO.

REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL
Sorry gotta grab this.

His face turns white with fear as he chokes back tears
listening to the request from the other line.

REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL (CONT'D)
You got it - no problem boss. We'll take care of it.

He hangs up.
